[NUMB. 882.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY April 1st, to MONDAY April 8th, 1751.

Mr. TIMOTHY,

As this is a Week set apart for serious Contemplation, I flatter myself it will not appear an unfashionable Request, to desire the Publication of the following Verses; which however, unequal to the noble Subject of which they treat, flow from the Pen of one who hopes always to have his Heart warm'd with Morality, and what is the Perfection of it, Religion. Yours, &c.

April 1st, 1751. A. B.

SHINE thou bright Sun, with a diſtinguiſh'd Ray,
And help to celebrate this ſolemn Day;
Put all thy Glory forth: — Behold thy GOD,
As now deſcending from his bleſt Abode;
A CHRIST, a Saviour, on Mankind beſtow'd,
Dreſt in frail Fleſh, in Man's Corruption cloath'd.
Let raviſh'd Earth proclaim ſuch wondrous Love,
Let unfeign'd Praiſe our Gratitude approve,
Whilſt in the pious Work each Angel joins above.
Strike up th' enchanting Song! He comes!—tell it ye Woods,
Tell it ye Groves, tell it ye inſpir'd Floods!
He comes, to teach, to comfort, and to free,
And gives eternal Life to vile Mortality.
Prophets of old, warn'd by divine Command,
In Thee ſpoke Comfort to a ſinking Land;
Such pleaſing Notes could Sorrow's Pains beguile;
And Judah e'en in Slavery could ſmile:
Rome catch'd the Sound, the ever grateful Sound,
The Tidings told to Nations all around,
And ſung — A King ſhall reign with Heaven's Brightneſs crown'd.
The Golden Age Imagination feigns,
Sees Innocence return to rural Plains;
Sees Joys and Virtues walking Hand in Hand,
While ſmiling Peace leads up the ſacred Band.
The harmleſs Lambs with Wolves ſecurely ſtray
And bleating ſport around in wanton Play:
No more the Lion lords it in the Field,
Proud in his Fury, and untaught to yield;
His ſavage Fierceneſs is at laſt ſubdued,
And in the Bullock's Straw he ſeeks a common Food.
The ſtrong, the weak, appear a mingled Hoſt,
And ſtubborn Nature owns her Power loſt.
Thus ſung Iſaiah in a former Age;
Thus Virgil's Muſe tranſcrib'd the ſhining Page.
But ſee the CHRIST his Origin confeſs!
Mercy, his Work; his only Toil, to bleſs:
With agile Swiftneſs fly ye happy Lame,
With fervent Zeal adore his ſacred Name,
And whereſoe'er ye go, there ſpread your Saviour's Fame.
Open your Eyes ye Blind, receive your Sight,
Look up! Look up! and hail th' Approach of Light.
Ye Dumb, in Joy your Voice unfetter'd raiſe,
And eloquently pay the Tribute of your Praiſe!
But Oh! behold thy CHRIST in Agony!
Behold, O Man! and know, 'tis all for Thee.
For Thee, he drinks the bitter Cup of Woe,
Pleas'd to engage with Sin, his great and deadly Foe.
Spit on by Madmen, ſtruck with Villain's Hands,
Injur'd, abus'd, deſpis'd,—Heaven's Monarch ſtands!
Now, like a Criminal, behold Him bound,
His tender Body rack'd with many a Wound!
Now mock'd with Majeſty and regal State;
They bid him be ridiculouſly great:
See on his Shoulders purple Garments ſpread,
And Crowns of Thorn thick planted round his Head!
(Ungrateful Iſrael! go, your Crime compleat
With eager Malice, and revengeful Hate:
But Deſolation threatens from afar,
I ſee the Horrors of th' approaching War:
Without, the Valour of avenging Rome
Spreads rounds thy Walls, and haſtens on thy Doom;
Within, Sedition, Famine, Hate, engage,
And 'midſt yourſelves War's herceſt Evils rage.
GOD pours his Vengeance on the guilty Land,
And the loſt Nation feels th' Almighty Hand.)
Now, now, the Croſs our mighty King ſuſtains!
Pierc'd are his Hands, his Feet, with ſharpeſt Pains!
He bows his Head.—He dies.—Earth trembling quakes;
And with ſtrong, horrible Convulſion ſhakes.
The Sun grows dim.—dread Night uſurps the Sky,
And with her dying LORD, all Nature ſeems to die.
Be grateful, Man; adore ſuch Love divine;
To ſerve, to pleaſe, to glorify,—be thine.
Behold Him ſcourg'd?—chaſtiſe each darling Sin,
Each fav'rite Vice rebuke, and bleed within.
Spit on by Madmen?—Go, thoſe Fools deſpiſe,
Who laugh at Virtue, and who mock the Wiſe:
Be ſtill the ſame, ſtill ſteady to your Truſt,
Tho' ſcorn'd, be upright; tho' deſpis'd, be juſt.
Or crown'd with Thorns?—Let Him your Pattern be,
Through Life's rough Road and ſolitary Way;
Tho' worldly Thorns your eager Courſe retard,
Preſs on with Boldneſs to a ſure Reward;
Great is the Labour, but the End is Gain,
Nor Death ſhall conquer, nor CHRIST die in vain.

LONDON, January 19.

ON Thurſday Sir Edward Seymour, Bart. took the oaths and his ſeat in the houſe of peers, as duke of Somerſet.

As did alſo the Right Hon. the Earl of Beſborough of the kingdom of Ireland, as Baron Syſonby in the county of Leiceſter.

As alſo the Right Hon. Lord Viſcount Conway, as Earl of Hertford.

There were upwards of 80 peers at the houſe of lords on Thurſday, and 320 members of the houſe of commons; the greateſt number known for many years at the opening of a ſeſſion.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the houſe of peers waited on his majeſty at St. James's with their addreſs of thanks for his moſt gracious ſpeech from the throne, on Thurſday laſt, to which his majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious anſwer:

My LORDS,

I Return you my hearty thanks for this dutiful and affectionate addreſs.

The ſatisfaction you have ſo unanimouſly expreſſed in the treaties I have lately concluded, and the meaſures which I am purſuing, gives me the greateſt pleaſure: I entirely rely on your zeal and ſupport, in bringing them into perfection, for the welfare of my own kingdoms and the general tranquillity of Europe.

They alſo congratulated his majeſty on the joyful occaſion of the birth of a princeſs. To which his majeſty ſaid, He looked upon it as a freſh inſtance of their lordſhips duty and affection to his perſon and family.

'Tis ſaid that ſome diſpatches of importance have been ſent this week to our miniſter at the court of Peterſburgh.

From Denmark we are informed, that by the great encouragement that king gives his ſubjects to trade, a ſcheme is propoſed which will increaſe it, by forming a great magazine of all kinds of naval ſtores in the iſland of St. Thomas in the Weſt Indies, to ſupply supply all nations who trade into those parts, and the better to accommodate ships or vessels that may want careening, to stop leaks, or repair; (an invention formerly practised in Denmark, whereby a ship either light or laden may be careened in 24 hours, and fit to go to sea again, if she wants no other repair.) And it is said the proposer of this scheme is shortly expected in that country to have the direction of the undertaking.

By private letters received by the Hon. East-India company there is advice, that the person who called himself Nabob, and who some time ago killed the Nabob that acted under the Great Mogul and defeated great part of his army, having since that time taken upon himself the government of several towns and provinces, and a vast number of French having inlisted themselves under him, insomuch that he began to be very powerful, the great Mogul ordered his chief general to march against him with his army; which he accordingly did, and came up with him near Pondicherry, when a bloody battle ensued, wherein the Nabob's army was defeated, and himself with his scattered men obliged to retire under the walls of Pondicherry to beg the protection of the French government. Above 1000 French were killed in this engagement.

BOSTON, February 4.

SINCE our last we have receiv'd further accounts of the damages sustain'd in the late storm.

Particularly from Westerly in Rhode-Island colony, we hear a house was blown down, and one man kill'd; and from Lancaster, that a barn there was blown down, and a horse and 6 sheep kill'd.

Likewise from Sudbury they write, that 7 barns and many trees were blown down there, and one house, in which was only one person, who stepping into the corner just as it fell, narrowly escaped from being kill'd.

Also from Groton in the county of Middlesex, that on the 16th instant there was a very great flood, such as has not been known for several years past, and that many hundred pounds damage had been done thereby to the bridges, &c. it took the bridge which stood a-cross Lancaster river, so called, entirely off; which is the 4th bridge the town of Groton has built in about 28 years last past.
